notice grave irregularities in the way in which the Cash book and Ledger have been kept in that Court, and to state that in my opinion, the accounts not only of that Court but also of the Shimoga Munsiff's Court where a deficiency of Rs. 148 was brought to my notice and formed the subject of correspondence between me and the Munsiff, without however any satisfactory result, and also of the Chikmaglur Munsiff's Court where it was reported that certain Ledgers were made away with by somebody in that Court, should be thoroughly overhauled.
